

Alessandro Carollo

Director, Government Relations
Royal Caribbean Group

Alessandro worked for international port and shipping agencies, assisting cargo, ferry, navy ships and cruise lines since 2000 before landing at Royal Caribbean Group's port operations in 2014, where he assumed increasing responsibilities, ultimately as Director of Port Services for EMEA.

As of October 2021, in his current capacity he is responsible to engage with international governments and local authorities on key initiatives and projects focused on maritime, public health, sustainability, and destination management matters.

Since 2021 also serves as Chair of CLIA Europe's Ports and Destinations Advisory Committee.
