

Kevin Bubolz, Managing Director Europe, Norwegian Cruise Line

Kevin Bubolz serves as Managing Director for Continental Europe for Norwegian Cruise Line, Scandinavia and Finland overseeing activities in these markets.

He started his career working as a travel agent at TUI Leisure Travel GmbH and then transitioned into the cruising industry by joining Hapag-Lloyd Cruises.

Since he started working for NCL in 2005, he held different responsibilities such as covering various marketing, revenue management and sales positions.

One of his biggest accomplishments was the creation of the Commercial Business Planning department which helped strengthening the company's global position.

Kevin Bubolz was born in Kiel at the Baltic Sea. He is married and has two daughters, who both share his passion for travels and cruising.

