

Michele Bosco

Manager, Shore Excursions & Operations Europe, Africa, Middle East Princess Cruises

Michele Bosco currently manages shore excursions in the regions of Europe, Africa and Middle East for Princess Cruises.

Born in Lecco (North Italy), Italy, Michele was “raised on ships”, and has also lived in Cologne, Germany.

He started his cruise industry career as Junior Assistant Purser onboard Princess ships in 1997 and covered various positions in the Purser’s Department before moving to Shorex in 2001 and never looked back. Michele moved back to land at the end of 2018 and joined the Shore Excursions department at Holland America Group (encompassing Holland America Lines, Princess Cruises and Seabourn Lines) at that time.

As of spring 2023, he is responsible for Princess Cruises product and operations only.

He has degrees in Business Administration and Foreign Languages. Michele loves to travel and has visited more than 300 ports in his seagoing career. His favorite ports are Acapulco, St Maarten and Yasava-i-Rara.
