

Nikolaos Patsiokas

COO

BWA Yachting

Nikolaos Patsiokas, a Greek emigrant for the past 23 years, born in the Rhodian city of Lindos and currently based in Monaco. With a degree in Int Management from London, started his career in the Healthcare sector of Northern Ireland. In 2009 he moved south dedicated himself to the sea & joined BWA Yachting in Venice Italy.

A few years, countries and positions later, now holds the post of COO for the 6th year and has supported the company growth and become the largest Yachting Agency in the world, with active operations & interests in more than 30 countries globally. Since 2019 has had a seat on the board of ECPY, since 2021 chairs the international committee of the board and in 2023 was appointed as the chairman of ECPY International.