

Ukko Metsola

Vice President

Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd

Ukko Metsola is Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd.'s Vice President for government relations in EMEA. In this role he is responsible primarily for the development, planning and execution of RCL's policies and objectives involving legislative and regulatory matters.

Metsola has served RCL with similar responsibilities since 2007, first as an outside consultant to the company. He started in his current position at the beginning of 2016.

Ukko is a Finnish citizen who started his political career as Senior Adviser in the Finnish Parliament and then in the Prime Minister's Office (Helsinki).

He is a graduate from the University of Helsinki and from the Harvard Kennedy School, where he studied with a Fulbright scholarship. He lives in Europe with his wife and four sons.